

Lane Family Fund for Hispanic Studies in Psychology

Nova Southeastern University Center for Psychological Studies is now accepting applications for the Lane Family Fund for Hispanic Studies in Psychology. This scholarship is available to graduate psychology students currently matriculated in any Center for Psychological Studies program wishing to pursue Hispanic studies in psychology.

Students in good standing are eligible for nomination by a CPS administrator or faculty member. The dollar amount of this scholarship varies. Students may make application independently. This scholarship is awarded in the form of a tuition waiver.

Background

The Lane Family Fund for Hispanic Studies in Psychology is funded through an endowment provided by the Lane Family. This fund is to be used to provide scholarships to outstanding students who demonstrate significant financial need.

Eligibility

The applicant must be a current student who is matriculated in a graduate program in the Center for Psychological Studies. Students currently on academic probation are not eligible during their period of probation. Students under review for Professional Standing related issues may be deemed ineligible until the resolution of their review.

For further information email karol@nova.edu.