

Gretchen M. Moy Ph.D.

(754) 200-4650

drgretchenmoy@gmail.com

EDUCATION

- B.A. Psychology, Earlham College, Richmond, IN. May, 2003
- M.S. Clinical Psychology, Nova Southeastern University, Fort Lauderdale, FL. September, 2006
- Ph.D. Clinical Psychology, Forensic Psychology Concentration. September 2009
Nova Southeastern University, Fort Lauderdale, FL.
- Licensed in Florida October 2010, PY8179

CURRENT POSITIONS

- Private Practice, Moy Clinical and Forensic Psychology Services
July 2021- Current

Conducting psycholegal evaluations for attorneys and the court in adult and juvenile criminal matters; including competency to proceed, mental state at the time of the offense, mitigation, diagnostic evaluations, and risk assessment. Authoring reports to the court, conducting psychological assessment, and expert testimony. Attorney consultation.

- Eligibility assessment of individuals with autism and intellectual disabilities for the Agency for Persons with Disabilities (APD) and APD involuntary residential placement evaluations, South and Southeast regions. APD court approved evaluator.
  - Compensation and Pension evaluations through Gulfshore Behavioral Health for the Department of Veteran Affairs.
  - Provision of psychological literature briefs to attorneys to assist them with unique case issues in conjunction with supervised students from Nova Southeastern University
- Adjunct Professor Nova Southeastern University, Fort Lauderdale, Florida
January 2011- August 2023; Associate Lecturer Nova Southeastern University
August 2023-Current

Consists of preparation, instruction, and student evaluation within various courses of the College of Psychology and Masters in Forensic Psychology programs of Nova Southeastern University. Supervision of Capstone theses and field experience.

- Correctional Medical Authority, Florida Department of Health
November 2013- Current, Contract Auditor

Participate in audits of Florida prison mental health services to ensure inmates have access to mental health services and are being provided appropriate interventions.

RECENT EXPERIENCE

- Palm Beach County Court Psychology; Justice Services, West Palm Beach
January 2013- July 2021

Complete court ordered evaluations of competency to stand trial, guardianship, parental fitness, psychological evaluations of custody litigants, risk assessment, and psychological evaluations of juvenile delinquents. Author reports to the court and testify when requested. Utilize various forensic and clinical assessment tools.

- University Hospital & Medical Center, Pavilion; Tamarac, Florida
January 2013- December 2018, Per Diem

Provide second opinion on Baker Act Court documentation, Baker Act patients, provide opinions on need for hospitalization and ability to make treatment decisions

- University Hospital & Medical Center, Pavilion; Tamarac, Florida
November 2011- January 2013, Full Time

Supervision and management of the social services department, practicum students, and adjunctive therapy department in an inpatient setting. Quality management of therapeutic services. Ensure compliance with Baker Act requirements. Network with community providers and referral sources. Individual, group, and family therapy. Participation on multidisciplinary team. Adult, Child, and Elderly populations.

- Senior Psychologist; Okeechobee, Glades, and Indian River Correctional Institutions, Correctional Medical Services/Corizon Healthcare
December 2010- November 2011

Responsible for administrative duties at each institution; such as, interfacing with various institutional departments and administration, measuring/monitoring service delivery, auditing documentation, employee discipline and performance evaluations, supervision of master's level clinicians, employee training/education, and participation in institutional audits. Clinical responsibilities include individual therapy, crisis intervention, evaluation of sexual offenders, evaluating need for referral, evaluation of offenders in confinement, and other assessment/treatment as needed. Institution population varies between adult male offenders and youthful/adolescent offenders.

- Florida State Hospital, Forensic Services, Chattahoochee, Florida
Psychologist
Supervisor: Jennifer Conroy, Psy.D
October 2010- November 2010

This position consists of leadership of a multidisciplinary team in the treatment of forensically involuntarily committed adults. Responsibilities include assessment of competency to stand trial, risk assessment, crisis intervention, individual therapy, participation in administrative committees, treatment planning, psychiatric symptom monitoring, psychological assessment, and authoring reports to the courts.

- Florida State Hospital, Forensic Services, Chattahoochee, Florida
Psychology Resident
Supervisor: Jennifer Conroy, Psy.D
August 2009-October 2010

This position consists of leadership of a multidisciplinary team in the treatment of forensically involuntarily committed adults. Responsibilities include assessment of competency to stand trial, risk assessment, crisis intervention, individual therapy, treatment planning, psychiatric symptom monitoring, psychological assessment, and authoring reports to the courts.

INTERNSHIP EXPERIENCE

- Florida State Hospital, Chattahoochee, FL
Training Director: Ellen Resch, Ph.D., ABFP
August 2008- August 2009

This APA accredited predoctoral internship works with a forensic and civilly committed seriously mentally ill population. Assessments included; diagnostic clarification, competency to stand trial evaluations, risk assessment, response style assessment, and neuropsychological screening. Therapy with short term and long-term residents, as well as group interventions. Rotations in a high security male forensic admission, a female admission and long-term unit, and a chronic long term male unit. Didactics cover areas of professional development, forensic issues and case law, assessment measures, and therapeutic issues.

PRACTICUM EXPERIENCE

- House of Hope/ Stepping Stones, Fort Lauderdale, FL
Supervisors: David Shapiro Ph.D., ABPP; Lenore Walker, Ed.D, ABPP;
M. Ross Seligson, Ph.D.
January 2007-July 2007

House of Hope is a male community based, dual diagnosis facility. Clients are court-ordered to treatment at this facility, frequently through mental health court or drug court. Conducted psychological assessment and developed integrated reports used for treatment planning and to linkage to community services.

- Guardian ad Litem Program of Broward County, FL
Supervisors: David Shapiro Ph.D., ABPP; Lenore Walker, Ed.D, ABPP
August 2006-July 2007

Provided reports to the dependency courts in cases regarding parental fitness and adoption.

- South Florida Evaluation and Treatment Center, Miami, FL
Onsite Supervisor: Jacqueline Estrella, Psy.D.
Intensive Supervisor: David Shapiro, Ph.D., ABPP
August 2006- January 2007

Secure forensic facility that treats patients who are found Incompetent to Proceed and Not Guilty by Reason of Insanity until they are appropriate for a less restrictive placement/restored to competency. Responsibilities included conducting individual and group competency restoration, writing court reports, membership of multidisciplinary treatment team, and assessments of risk and functioning.

- House of Hope/Stepping Stones, Fort Lauderdale, FL
Supervisor: Stephen Campbell, Ph.D.
August 2005- August 2006

House of Hope is a male inpatient, dual diagnosis facility. Clients are court-ordered to treatment at this facility, frequently through mental health court or drug court. Caseload primarily consisted of clients found incompetent to proceed, but also included clients who were ordered to the facility through the Department of Corrections. Responsibilities included; individual therapy, group therapy, participation in client case review, and periodic updates to the court. The 12 step approach was utilized and substance abuse interventions were conducted with each client.

OTHER CLINICAL EXPERIENCES

- South Florida State Hospital, Pembroke Pines, Florida
Supervisor: Cathy Roberts, Psy.D.
April 2007-August 2008

Experience with civilly and forensically involuntarily hospitalized residents. Duties included individual therapy, group therapy, consulting on appropriateness of referrals for psychological services, and psychological assessment.

- Forensic and Clinical Psychology Associates, South Miami, Florida
Supervisor: I. Bruce Frumkin, Ph.D., ABPP
January 2007-August 2008

Duties included conducting assessments at various forensic facilities, literature reviews regarding specific psycholegal issues, and archival research about competency to waive Miranda rights.

- Seeds of Hope Outreach Program, Swaziland and South Africa
Travelled August 2007, June 2012

In affiliation with the Seeds of Hope Outreach Program and Nova Southeastern University, travelled to South Africa and Swaziland to provide psychological and psycho-educational services to orphans, vulnerable children and their caregivers. Services included conducting individual and group counseling at schools, orphanages, churches, and prisons. Topics discussed include suicide prevention, substance abuse, stress and burnout, peer counseling, transmission of HIV/AIDS, signs of depression, stigma, and communication skills.

PRESENTATIONS AND PUBLICATIONS

Defending Our Well-Being: Navigating Vicarious Trauma, Burnout, and Balance in Public Defense. May 16, 2024. Palm Beach County Public Defender's Office

Introduction to Mental Health Symptoms and Competency to Proceed. March 26, 2018. Palm Beach County State Attorney's Office

Introduction to Mental Health Symptoms and Competency to Proceed. August 11, 2017. Palm Beach County Public Defender's Office

Competency to Proceed and Assessment of Malingering. May 24, 2017. Palm Beach County Public Defender's Office

DSM-5 update. March 16, 2015. Palm Beach County Family Violence Program.

The Baker Act. November 4, 2013. Palm Beach County Victim Services.

DSM-5 update. September 9, 2013. Palm Beach County Victim Services.

Psychological Assessment series and Psychotherapy series. January 2012- June 2012.
University Hospital & Medical Center Psychiatric Residency program.

Management of Behaviorally Difficult Inmates. Okeechobee Correctional Institution, September 15, 2011.

Frumkin, I.B. & Lamendola, G.M. (2008, 2013). Capacity to Waive Miranda Rights. In Encyclopedia of Forensic Science. Chichester: John Wiley & Sons, Ltd.

Frumkin, I.B. & Lamendola, G.M. (2008, 2013). Interrogative Suggestibility. In Encyclopedia of Forensic Science. Chichester: John Wiley & Sons, Ltd.

A Humanitarian Trip to Swaziland. Presented at the Nova Southeastern University Brown Bag Series, October, 9 2007

A Plan to Integrate Mental Health Services into Swaziland's Correctional System. Presented to Swaziland's Commissioner of Prisons; Mbabane, Swaziland, August 23, 2007.

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

- Adjunct Professor- Psychopathology, Personality Disorders and Behavioral Interventions in Forensic Settings. Nova Southeastern University Masters in Forensic Psychology Program; Fall 2012-Current
- Adjunct Professor- Communication with the Courts
Nova Southeastern University Masters in Forensic Psychology Program; Fall 2013- Current
- Adjunct Professor- Law and the Mentally Disorder Offender
Nova Southeastern University Criminal Justice Institute, Masters in Criminal Justice Program; Spring 2011- Current
- Adjunct Professor -Introduction to Forensic Psychology. Nova Southeastern University Criminal Justice Institute, Masters in Criminal Justice Program; Summer 2012
- Adjunct Professor- Diagnosis and Treatment of Adult Psychopathology
Nova Southeastern University Masters in Mental Health Counseling Program
Summer 2011-Winter 2014