

A. Gordon Rose Scholarship – Another View

Nova Southeastern University Center for Psychological Studies is now accepting applications/nominations for the A. Gordon Rose Scholarship – Another View. This scholarship is available to graduate psychology students who are currently matriculated in a Center for Psychological Studies program and who are committed to doing research and professional work aimed at increasing self-acceptance and community acceptance of gay people.

Students in good standing are eligible for nomination by a CPS administrator or faculty member. Students may make application independently. The dollar amount of this scholarship varies and is payable in the form of a tuition waiver.

Background

The A. Gordon Rose Scholarship – Another View is funded through an endowment provided by Ms. Eve Rose in memory of her late son A. Gordon Rose. This fund is to be used to provide scholarships to students who are committed to doing research and professional work aimed at increasing the self-acceptance and community acceptance of gay and lesbian individuals.

Eligibility

The applicant must be a current student who is matriculated in a graduate program in the Center for Psychological Studies who exemplifies the purpose of the A. Gordon Rose – Another View Scholarship. Students on academic probation are not eligible during their period of probation. Students under review for Professional Standing related issues may be deemed ineligible until the resolution of their review.
