Nova Southeastern University
College of Psychology
Student Government Association (SGA) Constitution

Nova Southeastern University has many different student governments on the campus, including the College of Psychology’s Student Government Association (SGA). SGA has twelve (12) elected officials that represent the student body and regularly present the students' interests to the faculty and administration. SGA is currently advised by Dr. Barry Nierenberg, and is also regularly helped by the administrative staff and faculty.

Each student at the College of Psychology pays a student activity fee that entitles them to become a member of SGA and permits them to take part in any/all of their activities. SGA also hosts a number of social activities throughout the year such as Back-to-school socials and the annual "Spring Formal."

Please feel free to contact SGA through email at gradpsysga@nova.edu if you have any questions or concerns or visit our office. (The SGA office is located on the second floor in Room 2056.)

The College of Psychology’s SGA follows guidelines as set down by the Bylaws, which follow.

Section 3. Executive Board Meetings

A. The Executive Board shall meet at least once a month, at a mutually agreeable time and place.
B. The Executive Board may perform the functions that are assigned to it by these Bylaws and may take action upon any matter that warrants attention.

C. A simple majority of officers constitutes a quorum to transact any business.

D. A simple majority may decide every question that properly comes before the Executive Board with the President voting only in the case of a tie.

E. A copy of the minutes of every Executive Board meeting shall be posted within one week of the approval of said minutes.

F. No Executive Board meeting shall be convened or recognized as being convened unless the President is present, or, in the absence of the President, the Vice President is present. Any meeting convened without the presence of either the President or Vice President will be considered invalid. Any and all College of Psychology’s SGA business conducted in said meeting will be considered null and void.

Section 4. Advisor

A. A faculty member of the College of Psychology will serve as the official advisor to the College of Psychology’s SGA. Members of the College of Psychology’s SGA will suggest up to three possible faculty members that they would like to have as their advisor and rank order them. The Dean of the College of Psychology will make the final decision/recommendation as to who will be asked to serve as the advisor. The faculty advisor shall serve for a term of no less than one year and may remain, as the College of Psychology’s SGA faculty advisor for as long as he/she and the College of Psychology’s SGA executive officers feel is appropriate.

B. The College of Psychology’s SGA advisor will not be required to attend all SGA meetings, but may be asked to at times. The advisor will meet with the President and/or Vice President at least once per semester.

ARTICLE III. ELECTIONS

Section 1. Election Procedures

A. An Election Board conducts the election and enforces the election regulations and campaign procedures. The election board consists of all voting executive board members with the exception of members nominated for re-election.

B. The Election Board shall supervise the voting process to ensure honesty, integrity, and compliance with the established rules, regulations, and procedures. Any candidate from the election whom the Election Board judges to be guilty of any infraction of the established rules and regulations shall be disqualified from the election.

C. For every election, the Vice-President shall send to every student an announcement of the election and a "Call for Nominations" of candidates no later than the full first week of April, depending on academic calendar, allowing at least two full business weeks for both nominations and elections (5 business days each).

D. Students in good standing, who are currently enrolled at the NSU College of Psychology main campus, may nominate themselves or any other student.

E. One nomination shall warrant inclusion on the final ballot.

F. One week after the "Call for Nominations" the officers shall close the nominations and shall prepare a ballot, including the names of the candidates, for the final election.

G. The ballot may also contain a list of current issues of interest to students and will ask the latter opinions regarding those issues,

H. Officers, in the presence of a College of Psychology administrative staff member, will tabulate the ballots and post the results within twenty-four hours. The Election Board, for the purpose of investigating voting irregularities, may delay posting of results.

I. When two or more candidates receive the same number of votes, the President will decide between the candidates.

J. When there is only one validly nominated candidate for an office, the President shall declare that candidate elected by acclamation.

K. The Officers-elect will meet with current Officers during the summer months (the Officers-elect do not have a vote during official meetings).

L. The Officers will retire from their office on the first day of August and the Officers-elect shall serve their new positions in full capacity.

M. If an Executive position receives no nominations during the nominating period, the newly elected President, or (in the absence of a newly elected President) the newly elected Vice President, shall appoint students to these positions after taking office.

Section 2. Candidate Eligibility

A. Only activity-fee-paying students in good standing, currently enrolled at Nova Southeastern University’s main campus may run for election.

B. A student running for the position of Master’s, School (Psy.D/Psy.S), or Clinical Doctoral (Psy.D./Ph.D) Representative(s) must be a student currently enrolled in that particular program.

Section 3. Voting Eligibility

A student who is in good standing is qualified to vote in any election for officers of the College of Psychology SGA.

ARTICLE IV. VACANCIES

Section 1. Resignations
A. An officer may resign from the Executive Board by delivering a written resignation to the President, or if the resigning officer is the President, then the President shall submit the resignation to the Vice President. Then that office is thereupon deemed vacant.

B. Any officer resigning or removed from office for any reason will refund, in full, the entire payment amount of that office for the semester in which the resignation or removal took place to the treasurer, within one month of said resignation or removal. Failure to do so will result in a charge for the amount paid to the student being placed on the student's financial account at Nova Southeastern University.

Section 2. Removal

A. An officer may be removed from office before his or her term would have otherwise expired by a 2/3 majority of votes cast at an Executive meeting; or at an open College of Psychology SGA meeting; or by the student body in the form of a petition; and at least one of the following conditions must be met before said removal can take place:
   i. Appropriate grounds leading to the termination of that office due to the absence from more than (2) two Executive Board meetings within a semester will cite that officer for removal, and that office becomes vacant upon said removal; or
   ii. Appropriate grounds leading to the termination of that office due to a blatant disregard of one or more of the provisions of these Bylaws, or of a blatant disregard for said office characterized by a lack of "good faith" effort to carry out the necessary and appropriate duties and responsibilities of said office, will cite that officer for removal, and that office becomes vacant upon said removal.
   iii. The position of an officer who ceases to be in good academic and financial standing automatically becomes vacant.

Section 3. Filling Vacancies

A. If an officer's position becomes vacant, the vacancy will be filled within one month of said vacancy, appointed by the Executive Board with the final approval granted by the President.

B. If the President's office becomes vacant, the Vice President shall fill the vacancy.

C. The Vice President's office will then automatically become vacant, at which time the above procedure for filling vacancies shall be followed.

ARTICLE V. AMENDMENTS TO THE BYLAWS

Section 1. Purpose

Amendments to these Bylaws may be necessary in order to maintain consistent and impartial service to the students of the College of Psychology at Nova Southeastern University.
Section 2. Process

A. Proposed amendments to these Bylaws may be initiated by any student and presented to the College of Psychology’s SGA President along with the Executive Board.
B. To be placed on a ballot for referendum, proposed amendments to these Bylaws must receive one of the following:
   i. A two-thirds (2/3) majority roll-call vote from the College of Psychology’s SGA Executive Board, or
   ii. A signed petition consisting of at least 10% of enrolled College of Psychology students.
C. An amendment shall be considered passed by referendum if a simple majority of those votes of the fee-paying College of Psychology student body votes in the affirmative.

Section 3. Ratification

If approved by the referendum, the amendment shall be incorporated into these Bylaws.
