

Annual Public Policy Advocacy Training

NSU, FASP, & Coalition for the Education of Exceptional Students (CEES)

Tallahassee: Capitol Building

NSU, FASP, & CEES Public Policy Advocacy Training Involves:

- Three day trip to Tallahassee for students and professionals
- All expenses paid except for some meals
- Two hours of basic advocacy training
- Full day of advanced advocacy and leadership training
- Emphasis on mental health and education issues
- Visits with legislators and aides
- Attendance/testimony at committee meetings
- Observation of Senate/House if in session
- Meetings with FPA and FPS Executive Directors if available
- Group meals and social events
- Fabulous van ride for those who live in South Florida

Training Sessions:

Meeting with Representative:

Meeting with Legislator:

Meeting with Representative O'Toole

Meeting with Senator Sobel

Visiting the Old Capitol:

Florida Senate:

Senate Session:

Florida House Session:

