The doctoral program in school psychology holds the designation of National Recognition by the National Association of School Psychologists (NASP).

Requirements for professional licensure and certification can vary markedly by state. At this time, the College of Psychology cannot confirm whether its Doctoral Program in School Psychology (Psy.D.) degree meets all of the educational, licensure, and certification requirements in all states. Further, these requirements can change frequently and often without notice.

Several states have unique licensing requirements, and thus this information is subject to change without notice. We advise you to contact your state licensing and certification body to ensure the degree will meet requirements for licensure in the state in which you seek to be licensed. For licensing board contact information and approval status, please see asppb.net.

PROGRAM MEETS EDUCATIONAL REQUIREMENTS	PROGRAM DOES NOT MEET EDUCATIONAL REQUIREMENTS	CANNOT BE CONFIRMED IF PROGRAM MEETS EDUCATIONAL REQUIREMENTS
Florida		All 50 states (except Florida), the District of Columbia and the US protectorates, as defined in 34 CFR §600.2.

It is strongly encouraged that students, applicants, and prospective students determine any additional (i.e. non-educational) requirements for licensure in the state in which they seek to be licensed.

For all students, applicants, or prospective students seeking licensure in any state listed in the “Program Does Not Meet Educational Requirements” or “Cannot Be Confirmed If Program Meets Educational Requirements” columns, please see the chart below detailing these states’ licensing boards and contact information.
